

Roadstone - leading supplier of building materials

Centurion Roof Tiles

Centurion 12.5° Roof Tile

Centurion 12.5° Roof Tile is a versatile concrete tile for pitches down to 12.5°. It is a soft role concrete roof tile suitable for main roofs and extensions. The Centurion 12.5° Roof Tile can be used for pitches down to 10° once you consult with our roof tile technical department, for more information contact your local Roadstone location here.

Key features and benefits

- An established design since 1962
- Perfect down to 12.5° degrees
- Can be laid down to 10° degrees under technical guidance
- Wind barriers behind the leading edge to combat wind lift
- Hidden fixings including tile clip
- Available in 3 colours Brown, Slate Grey & Terracotta
- Full range of dry fix fittings

Technical specification

CRH Roof Tiles are manufactured to exacting standards at our various Roof Tile Plants. Manufacturing is in compliance with I.S. E.N. 490: 2005 Concrete Roofing Tiles & Fittings and should be fixed in accordance with the Irish Code of Practice for Slating and Tiling I.C.P. 2:2002.

Product sizes, weights & quantities

Size (overall)	Minimum Pitch	Maximum Pitch	Headlap
385 x 230mm	12.5°	44°	Minimum 100mm

Related products

- Continuous Dry Verge
- Ridges
- Tile Vent